VI ADMINISTRATION

A Meetings

1 Place of Meetings of Owners Meetings of the Association of Condominium Unit Owners shall be held at the Properties or such other suitable place as close thereto as practicable, in Weber County, Utah, convenient to the Owners as may be designated by the Management Committee.

2 Annual Meetings of Owners The first annual meeting of owners shall be held within thirty (30) days after fifty-one percent (51%) of the sales or all of the units have closed or within six (6) months after the close of the sale of the first unit, whichever occurs first. Thereafter, the annual meetings of the Association of Condominium Unit Owners shall be held on the anniversary date of the first annual meeting; provided however, that should the anniversary date fall on a legal holiday, then such annual meeting of the owners shall be held on the next day thereafter which is not a legal holiday. At such annual meeting, there shall be elected by ballot of the Owners, a Management Committee. At the first annual meeting the members of the Management Committee shall be elected for a term of one (1) year beginning with the second annual meeting. Unless a member of the Management Committee resigns before the expiration of his term of office, each member shall hold his office until his successor has been elected and the first meeting involving such successor is held. The term of office of any member elected to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of his predecessor shall be the balance of the unserved term of his predecessor. The Unit Owners may also transact such other business of the Association as may properly come before them. Each first Mortgagee of a unit may designate a representative to attend all annual meetings of the Owners.

3 Special Meetings of Owners Special meetings of the Owners may be called at any time by a majority of a quorum of the Management Committee, or upon a petition signed by Owners holding at least fifteen percent (15%) of the voting power having been presented to the Secretary. The notice of any special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice, unless by consent of those Owners holding at least four-fifths (4/5th) of the voting power of the Association, either in person or by proxy. Each first Mortgagee of a Unit may designate a representative to attend all special meetings of the Owners.

4 Notice of Meetings of Owners It shall be the duty of the Secretary to mail a notice of each annual or special meeting of Owners, stating the purpose thereof as well as the day, hour and place where it is to be held, to each Owner of record and to each first Mortgagee of a Unit which has filed a written request for notice with the Secretary, at least ten (10) but not more than sixty (60) days prior to such meeting. The notice may set forth time limits for speakers and nominating procedures for the meeting. The mailing of a notice, postage prepaid, in the manner provided in this Section shall be considered notice served, after said notice has been deposited in a regular depository of the United States mail. If no address has been furnished the Secretary, notice shall be deemed to have been given to an Owner if posted in a conspicuous place at the Condominium.

5 Adjourned Meeting If any meeting of Owners cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the Owners who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than five (5) days nor more than thirty (30) days from the time the original meeting was called, at which meeting the quorum requirement shall be the presence in person or by proxy of the Owners holding at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting power of the Association. Such adjourned meetings may be held without notice thereof, except that notice shall be given by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken. If a meeting is adjourned for more than thirty (30) days, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

6 Order of Business The order of business at all meetings of the Owners shall be as follows: (a) roll call, to determine the voting power represented at the meeting; (b) proof of notice of meeting or waiver of notice; (c) reading of minutes of preceding meeting; (d) reports of officers; (e) reports of committees; (f) election of inspector of election; (g) election of Management Committee; (h) unfinished business and (i) new business. Meetings of Owners shall be conducted by the officers of the Association, in order of their priority.

7 Consent of Absentees The transactions of any meeting of Owners, either annual or special, however, called and noticed, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Owners not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consent or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

8 Minutes, Presumption of Notice Minutes or a similar record of the proceedings of meetings of Owners, when signed by the Chairman or Secretary, shall be presumed truthfully to evidence the matters set forth therein. A recitation in the minutes of any such meeting that notice of the meeting was properly given shall be prima facie evidence that such notice was given.

B Management Committee

1. Number and Qualification The property, business and affairs of the Association of Condominium Unit Owners shall be governed and managed by a Management Committee composed of three (3) persons, each of whom, except for those appointed and serving as first members, must either be an Owner of a Unit in the Condominium, or an agent of Declarant for so long as the Declarant owns a Unit in the Condominium. the Management Committee may increase, by resolution, the authorized number of members of the committee; provided that the Owners shall have the sole right to elect the new Committee members. Management Committee Members shall not receive any stated salary for their services as members; provided, however, that (1) nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any member from serving the Association in some other capacity and receiving compensation therefor and (2) any member may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

2. Power and Duties The Management Committee has the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association and may do all such acts and things are not by law or this Declaration and By-Laws directed to be exercised and done exclusively by the Owners.

3. Special Powers and Duties Without prejudice to such foregoing general powers and duties and such other powers and duties as are set forth in this Declaration and By-Laws, the Management Committee is vested with, and responsible for, the following powers and duties:

- a. To select, appoint, and remove all officers, agents, and employees of the Association, to prescribed such powers and duties for them as may be consistent with law, with this Declaration and By-Laws; to fix their compensation and to require from them security for faithful service when deemed advisable by the Management Committee.

c. To change the principal office for the transaction of the business of the Association from one location to another within the county of Weber, and designate any place within said county for the holding of any annual or special meeting or meetings of Owners consistent with the provisions hereof.

d. To borrow money and to incur indebtedness for the purposes of the Association, and to cause to be executed and delivered therefor, in the Association's name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations or other evidences of debt and securities therefor.

e. To fix and levy from time to time Assessments, upon the Owners, to determine and fix the due date for the payment of such assessments, and the date upon which the same shall become delinquent; provided however, that such assessments shall be fixed and levied only provide for the payment of the expenses for labor rendered or materials or supplies used and consumed, or equipment and appliances furnished for the maintenance, improvement or development of common areas or for the payment of any and all obligations in relation thereto, or in performing or causing to be performed any of the purposes of the Association for the general benefit and welfare of the Owners, in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration. The Management Committee is hereby authorized to incur any and all such expenditures for any of the foregoing purposes and to provide, or cause to be provided adequate reserves.

f. To enforce the provisions of the Declaration covering the condominium common areas, this Declaration and By-Laws or other agreements of the Association.

g. To contract for and pay insurance, in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration.

h. To contract for and pay maintenance, gardening, utilities, materials and supplies, and services relating to the condominium common areas and to employ necessary for the operation of the condominium common areas, including legal and accounting services, and to contract for and pay for improvements and facilities on the condominium common area.

i. To delegate its powers according to law, and this Declaration and By-Laws.

j. To grant easements where necessary for utilities and sewer facilities over the condominium common area.

k. To adopt such Rules and Regulations as the Management Committee may deem necessary for the management of the condominium common area, which Rules and Regulations shall become effective and binding after (1) they are adopted by a majority of the Committee at a meeting called for that purpose of by the written consent of such number of members attached to a copy or the Rules and Regulations of the Association, and (2) they are posted in a conspicuous place in the condominium common area. For so long as Declarant holds or directly controls at least twenty-five (25%) percent of the voting power of the Association, such Rules and Regulations shall not materially affect the rights, privileges or preferences of any Owner as established by this Declaration, without the prior written approval of the Utah Commissioner of Real Estate. Such Rules and Regulations may concern, without limitation, use of the Common Area; signs, parking restrictions, minimum standards or property maintenance consistent with this Declaration, and any other matter within the jurisdiction of the Association as provided in this Declaration; provided however, that such Rules and Regulations shall be enforceable only to the extent that they are consistent with this Declaration.

4. Management Contract The Management Committee may contract with any person, firm or association for the management of the Common Areas.

5. Election and Term of Office At the first annual meeting of the association, and thereafter at each annual meeting of the Owners, new members of the Management Committee shall be elected by secret written ballot by a majority of Owners as provided herein. In the event that an annual meeting is not held, or the Management Committee is not elected thereat, the Committee may be elected at a special meeting of the Owners held for that purpose. Each member shall hold office until his successor has been elected or until his death, resignation, removal or judicial adjudication of mental incompetence. Any person serving as member may be re-elected, and there shall be no limitation on the number to terms during which he may serve.

6. Books, Audit The Management Committee shall cause to be maintained a full set of books and records showing the financial condition of the affairs of the Association in a manner consistent with generally accepted accounting principles, and at no greater than annual intervals shall obtain as independent certified audit of such books and records. A copy of each such audit shall be delivered to an Owner within thirty (30) days after the completion of such audit upon written request from an Owner. A balance sheet and an audited operating (income) statement for the Association shall be distributed to each Owner (and to any institutional holder of a first Mortgage on a Unit upon request) within sixty (60) days of accounting dates as follows:

a. An initial balance sheet and an initial operating statement as of an accounting date which shall be the last day of the month closest in time to six (6) months following the date of closing of the first sale of a Unit to an Owner.

b. Thereafter, an annual balance sheet and an annual operating statement as of the last day of the Association's fiscal year.

The operating statement for the first six months accounting period referred to in (a) above shall include a schedule of assessments received or receivable itemized by Unit number and by the name of the person or entity assessed.

7. Vacancies Vacancies in the Management Committee caused by any reason other than the removal of a member by a vote of the Owners of the Association shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining members, even though they may constitute less than a quorum, and each person so elected shall be a member until a successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the Owners of the Association, or at a special meeting of the Owners called for that purpose. A vacancy or vacancies shall be deemed to exist in case of death, resignation, removal or judicial adjudication of mental incompetence of any member, or in case the Owners fail to elect the full number of authorized members at any meeting at which such election is to take place.

8. Removal of Member At any regular or special meeting of the Owners duly called, any one or more of the members may be removed with or without cause by a majority vote of the Owners of the Association, and a successor may then be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any member whose removal has been proposed by the Owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting. If any or all of the members are so removed, new members may be elected at the same meeting.

9. Organization Meeting The first regular Committee ("organization") meeting of a newly elected Management Committee shall be held within ten (10) days of election of the Committee at such place as shall be fixed and announced by the members at the meeting at which such members were elected, for the purpose of organization, election of officers and the transaction of other business. No notice shall be necessary to the newly elected members in order legally to constitute such meeting, provided a majority of the whole Committee shall be present.

10. Other Regular Meetings Other regular meetings of the Management Committee shall be open to the Owners and may be held at such time and place within the Common Areas as shall be determined, from time to time, by a resolution adopted by a majority of a quorum of the members, provided, however, that such meeting shall be held no less frequently than quarterly. Notice of regular meetings of the Management Committee shall be given to each member, personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the date named for such meeting, and shall be posted at a prominent place or places within the Common Area.

11. Special Meetings Special meetings of the Management Committee shall be open to all Owners and may be called by the Chairman (or, if he is absent or refuses to act, by the Vice Chairman). At least seventy-two (72) hours notice shall be given to each member, personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place (as hereinabove provided) and the purpose of the meeting, and shall be posted at a prominent place or places within the Common Area. If served by mail, each such notice shall be sent postage prepaid, to the address reflected on the records of the Association, and shall be deemed given, if not actually received earlier at 5:00 o'clock p.m. on the second day after it is deposited in a regular depository of the United States mail as provided herein. whenever any member has been absent from any special meeting of the Committee, an entry in the minutes to the effect that notice has been duly given shall be conclusive and incontrovertible evidence, that due notice of such meeting was given to such member, as required by law and as provided herein.

12. Waiver of Notice Before or at any meeting of the Management Committee any member may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. attendance by a member at any meeting of the Committee shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the members are present at any meeting of the Committee, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting. The transaction of any meeting of the Committee, however called and noticed or where ever held, shall be as valid as though a meeting had been duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the members not present signs such a written waiver of notice, if a quorum be present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the members not present signs such a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the records of the Association or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

13. Quorum and Adjournment Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, at all meetings of the Management Committee, a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the acts of the majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Management Committee. If at any meeting of the Management Committee, this is less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

14. Action Without Meeting the members shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the vote or written consent of all members. any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the members.

15. Fidelity Bonds The Management Committee may require that all officers and employees of the Association handling or responsible for Association funds shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the Association.

16. Committee The Management committee by resolution, may from time to time designate such committees as it shall desire, and may establish the purposes and powers of each such committee created. The resolution designating and establishing the committee shall provide for the appointment of its members, as well as a chairman, shall state the purposes of the committee, and shall provide for reports, termination, and other administrative matters as deemed appropriate by the Management Committee.

C Officers

1. Designation The principal officers of the Association shall be a Chairman, a Vice Chairman, and a Secretary-Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Management Committee.

2. Election of Officers The officers of the association shall be elected annually by the Management committee and each officer shall hold his office at the pleasure of the Management Committee, until he shall resign or be removed or otherwise disqualified to serve or his successor shall be elected and qualified to serve.

3. Removal of Officers Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Management Committee, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his successor elected at any regular meeting of the Management Committee, or at any special meeting of the Management Committee called for such purpose. any officers may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Committee or to the Chairman or Secretary-Treasurer. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and unless otherwise specified in said notice, acceptance of such resignation by the Committee shall not be necessary to make it effective.

4. Compensation Officers, agents, and employees shall receive such reasonable compensation for their services as may be authorized or ratified by the Committee. Appointment of any officer, agent, or employee shall not of itself create contractual rights of compensation for services performed by such officer, agent, or employee, provided that employee of Declarant or any affiliate of Declarant may receive any compensation.

5. Chairman The chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. He shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Management Committee. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of the President of a corporation including, but not limited to, the power to appoint committees from among the Members from time to time as he may in his discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association. 6. Vice Chairman The vice Chairman shall take the place of the Chairman and perform his duties whenever the Chairman shall be absent, disabled, refuses or unable to act. If neither the Chairman nor the Vice Chairman is able to act, the Management Committee shall appoint some other member of the committee to do so on an interim basis. The Vice Chairman shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed upon him by the Management Committee.

7. Secretary-Treasurer The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Management Committee and the minutes of all meetings of the Association at the principal office of the Association or at such other place as the Management Committee may order. The Secretary-Treasurer shall have charge of such books and papers as the Management Committee may direct and the Secretary-Treasurer shall, in general, perform all of the duties incident to the office of the Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer shall give, or cause to be given, notices of meetings of the Owners and of the Management Committee required by this Declaration and By-Laws or by law to be given. The Secretary-Treasurer shall maintain a book of record Owners, listing the names and addresses of the Owners as furnished the Association, and such books shall be changed only at such time as satisfactory evidence of a change in ownership of a unit is presented to the Secretary-Treasurer.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall have responsibility for Association funds and shall be responsible for keeping, or causing to be kept, full and accurate accounts, tax records and business transactions of the Association, including accounts of all assets, liabilities, receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Association. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be responsible for the deposit of all monies and other valuable effects in the name, and to the credit, of the Association in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Management Committee. The Secretary-Treasurer shall sign all check and promissory notes on behalf of the Association. The Secretary-Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Association as may be ordered by the Management Committee, in accordance with this Declaration, shall render to the Chairman and members, upon request, an account of all of his transactions as Secretary-Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Association, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Management Committee.

8. The Management Committee shall be known by such name or designation as it, or the unit owners, at any meeting may assign. Provided, however, a majority of the association of unit owners shall have the power to act as the Management Committee.

Whenever there is a change of ownership of a unit and its appurtenant rights, for whatever reason, the Management Committee or the manager may require as condition to recognizing the new unit owner or owners as such, that the new unit owner or owners furnish evidence substantiating the new ownership.

D Assessments

1. Every unit owner shall pay his proportionate shares of the condominium common expenses. Payment thereof shall be in such amounts and at such times as the Management Committee determines in accordance with the Act, this Declaration and By-Laws. There shall be a lien for non-payment of condominium common expense as provided by Utah Code Annotated, Section 57-8-20 (1953 As Amended).

In assessing unit owners or requiring them to pay for the building improvements and other improvements of the condominium common areas and facilities following the execution of the Declaration, it is agreed that no assessment for a single improvement in the nature of the capital expenditure exceeding the sum of $3,000 in cost shall be made without the same having been first voted on and approved by owners of 75% or more of the undivided interests in the condominium common areas and facilities. the foregoing sentence shall not apply in connection with the replacement of reconstruction occasioned by fire or other casualty.

(a) If proceeds of the insurance maintained by the Management Committee are alone sufficient to repair or reconstruct the damage or destroyed improvement, such repair or reconstruction shall be carried out.

(b) If less than 75% of the project's improvements are destroyed or substantially damaged, and if proceeds of the insurance maintained by the committee are not along sufficient to accomplish repair or reconstruction, restoration shall be carried out and all the Unit Owners shall be assessed for any deficiency on the basis of their respective percentages of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities.

(c) If 75% or more of the project's improvements are destroyed or substantially damaged, if proceeds of the insurance maintained by the management Committee are not alone sufficient to accomplish restoration, and if the unit owns within 100 days after the destruction or damage by a vote of at least 75% elect to repair or reconstruct the affected improvements, restoration shall be accomplished in the manner directed under subparagraph (b) above.

(d) If 75% or more of the project's improvements are destroyed or substantially damaged, if proceeds of the insurance maintained by the Committee are insufficient to accomplish restoration and if the unit owners do not, within 100 days after the destruction or damage and by note of at least 75% elect to repair or reconstruct the affected improvements, the Management Committee shall promptly record with Weber County Recorder a notice setting forth such facts. Upon the recording of such notice the provisions of subsection (1) through (4) of Section 57-8-31, Utah Code Annotated (1953 As Amended) shall apply and shall govern the rights of all parties having and interest in the project or any of the units.

Any reconstruction or repair which is required to be carried out by this paragraph shall be accomplished at the instance and direction of the Management Committee. Any determination which is required to be made by this paragraph regarding the extent of damage to or destruction of project improvements shall be made as follows: The Management Committee shall elect three (3) appraisers; each appraiser shall independently arrive at a figure representing the percentage of project improvements which have been destroyed or substantially damaged; the percentage which governs the application of the provisions of this paragraph shall be the average of the two closest appraisal figures.

VIII TAXES

1 It is understood that under Utah Code Annotated, Section 57-8-27 (1953 As Amended), each unit ad its percentage of undivided interest in the condominium common areas and facilities in the project are subject to separate assessments and taxation by each assessing unit and the special district for all types of taxes authorized by law, and that as a result thereof, no taxes will be assessed or payable against the project as such. Each unit owner will, accordingly, pay and discharge any and all taxes which may be assessed against him and his percentage of undivided interest in the condominium common areas and facilities.

IX INSURANCE

1 The Management Committee shall secure and maintain the following insurance coverage on the condominium project:

(a) Fire and extended overage: A multi-peril type policy covering the entire condominium project (both units and condominium common areas) shall be maintained as a minimum; such policy shall provide fire and extended coverage insurance on a replacement cost basis in an amount of 100% of the insurable value (based upon replacement cost) and may include loss on account of business interruption in the discretion of the Management Committee.

(b) Flood insurance: If the condominium project is, or becomes located in an area identified by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development as an area having special flood hazards, a "blanket" policy of flood insurance on the condominium project must be maintained in the amount of the aggregate of the outstanding principal balances of the mortgage loans on the condominium units comprising the condominium project, or the maximum limit of coverage available under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, As Amended, whichever is less.

(c) Liability coverage: A comprehensive policy of public liability insurance covering all of the condominium common areas and public ways in the condominium project shall be maintained. Such insurance policy shall contain a "severability of interest" endorsement which shall preclude the waiver from denying the claim of a condominium unit owner because of negligent acts of the Condominium Unit owners Association or other unit owners. The scope of coverage must include all other coverage in the kinds and amounts required by private institutional mortgage investors for projects similar in construction, location and use.

(d) Workmen's Compensation to the extent necessary to comply with any applicable laws.

(e) Fidelity Coverage. The Management Committee shall secure and maintain fidelity coverage against dishonest acts on the part of members of the Management Committee, managers, trustees, employees or volunteers responsible for handling funds belonging to or administered by the Association of the Condominium Unit Owners; designating the said Association as the named insured; written in an amount sufficient to provide protection which is in no event less than one and one half times the insured estimated annual operating expenses and reserves. In connection with such coverage, an appropriate endorsement to the policy to cover any persons who serve without compensation shall be added if the policy would not otherwise cover volunteers.

(f) Insurance for such other risks of a similar or dissimilar nature, as are or shall hereafter customarily be covered with respect to other condominium projects similar in construction, design and use.

(g) Exclusive authority to adjust losses under policies hereafter in force in the project shall be vested in the Management Committee or its authorized representative.

(h) Each unit owner may obtain additional insurance at his own expense, provided however, that no unit owner shall be entitled to exercise his right to maintain insurance coverage in such a way as to decrease the amount which the Management Committee, in behalf of all the unit owners, may realize under any insurance policy which the Management Committee may have in force on the project at any particular time.

X PAYMENT OF EXPENSES

1 Each unit owner shall pay the management Committee his allocated portion of the cash requirements deemed necessary by the Management Committee to manage and operate the condominium project, at the times, and in the manner herein provided without any deduction on account of any set-off or claim which the owners may have against the Management Committee, and if the unit owner shall fail to pay and installment within one month of the time when the same becomes due, the owner shall pay interest, thereon at the maximum legal rate from the date when such installment shall become due to the date of the payment thereof.

The cash requirements above referred to for each year, or portions of the year, are hereby defined and shall be deemed to be such aggregate sum as the Management Committee from time to time shall determine, in its judgment is to be paid by all of the owners of the condominium property then in existence to enable the Management Committee to then pay all estimated expenses and outlays of the Management Committee to the close of such year, growing out of or in connection with the maintenance and operation of the condominium common areas and facilities, which sum may include, among other things, the cost of management, special assessments, fire, casualty, public liability insurance premiums, fidelity coverage, common lighting, repairs and renovations to condominium common areas and facilities, wages, legal and accounting fees, management fees, expenses and liabilities incurred by the Management Committee under or by reason of this Declaration, the payment of any deficit remaining from the previous period, the creation of a reasonable contingency or other necessary reserve or surplus fund, as well as all other cost and expenses relating to the condominium project. The Management Committee may, from time to time, up to the close of the year for which such case requirements have been so filed or determined, increase or diminish the amount previously fixed or determined for such year. It may include in the cash requirements for any year, any liabilities or items of expense which accrued or become payable in the previous year, or which might have been included in the cash requirements for a previous year, but were not included therein; and also any sums which the Management Committee may deem necessary or prudent to provided a reserve against liabilities or expenses then accrued or thereafter to accrue although not payable in that year.

That portion payable by the unit owner in and for each year or for a portion of a year shall be a sum within the limits and on the conditions hereinabove provided bearing to the aggregate amount of such cash requirements for such year, or portion of year, determined as aforesaid, the same ratio as the unit owner owns a undivided interest in the condominium common areas and facilities, and such assessments, together with any additional sums accruing under this Declaration shall be payable monthly in advance, or in such payments and installments as shall be required by the Management Committee, and at such times as shall be provided by the Management Committee.

The Management Committee shall have discretionary powers to prescribe the manner of maintaining and operating the condominium project and to determine the cash requirements of the Management Committee to be paid as aforesaid by the owners under this Declaration. Every such reasonable determination by the Management Committee within the bounds of the Act, and this Declaration, shall be final and conclusive as to the owners, and any expenditures made by the Management Committee, within the bounds of the Act and this Declaration made for such purposes.

If the owner shall at any time let or sublet the unit and shall default for a period of one month in the payment of any assessments, the Management Committee may, at its option, so long as such default shall continue, demand and receive from any tenant or subtenant of the owner occupying the unit the rent due or becoming due and payment of such rent to the Management Committee shall be sufficient payment and discharge of such tenant or subtenant and the owner to the extent of the amount so paid.

Each monthly assessment and each special assessment shall be separate, distinct and personal debts and obligations of the owner against whom the same are assessed at the time the assessments is made and shall be collectible as such. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same. The amount of any assessment, whether regular or special, assessed to the owner plus reasonable attorneys fees, shall become alien upon such unit upon recordation of a notice of assessment as provided by the Act. The said lien for nonpayment of common expenses shall have priority over all other liens and encumbrances, recorded or unrecorded, except only:

(a) Tax and special assessment liens on the unit in favor of any assessment unit, and special district, and

(b) Encumbrances on the owner's interest in the unit (and condominium common areas and facilities) recorded prior to the date such notice is recorded which by law would be a lien prior to subsequently recorded encumbrances.

A certificate executed and acknowledged by a majority of the Management Committee stating the indebtedness secured (missing bottom line completely on page 467) conclusive upon the Management Committee and the owners as to the amount of such indebtedness on the date of certificate, in favor of all person who rely thereon in good faith, and such certificate shall be furnished to any owner or encumbrancee or prospective encumbrancee of a condominium upon request at a reasonable fee not to exceed $10.00. Unless the request for a certificate of indebtedness shall be compiled within ten (10) days, all unpaid condominium common expenses which become due prior to the date of making of such request shall be subordinate to the lien held by the person making the request. any encumbrancers holding a lien on a condominium may pay any unpaid common expenses payable with respect to such condominium for the amounts paid of the same rank as the lien of his encumbrance.

Upon payment of a delinquent assessment concerning which such certificate has been so recorded, or other satisfaction thereof, the management committee shall cause to be recorded in the same manner as the certificate of indebtedness a further certificate stating the satisfaction and release of the lien thereof. Such lien for non-payment of assessment may be enforced by sale by the management committee or by a bank or trust company or title insurance company authorized by the management committee, such sale to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the law applicable to the exercise of powers of sale or foreclosure in deeds of trust or mortgages or in any manner permitted by law. In any foreclosure or sale, the unit owners shall be required to pay the costs and expenses of such proceedings including reasonable attorney's fees.

In the event of foreclosure, the unit owners shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the condominium and the plaintiff in the foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rental without regard to the value of the mortgage security. The management committee or manager shall have the power to bid on the condominium at foreclosure or (missing part of bottom line on page 468) mortgage and convey the condominium.

2 With regard to the insurance required at paragraphs (a) and (b) Section 1 of ARTICLE IX, the name of the insured under each policy must be stated in form and substance similar to the following: "Condominium Unit Owners Association of CENTENNIAL CONDOMINIUM for the use and benefit of the individual owners" (designated by name of required).

Each such policy must contain the standard mortgagee clause which must be endorsed to provide that any proceeds shall be paid to the Condominium Unit Owners Association of CENTENNIAL CONDOMINIUM for the use and benefit of mortgagees as their interest may appear, or must be otherwise endorsed to fully protect FHLMC's, FNMA's or GNMA's interest, if applicable and is appropriate .

XI ASSESSMENTS SUBORDINATE

1 The lien or claim against a condominium unit for unpaid assessments or charges levied by the Management Committee or by the Association of Condominium Unit Owners pursuant to the Declaration of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act shall be subordinate to the mortgage affecting such unit, and the mortgagee or a successor to the mortgagee thereunder which comes into possession of the unit shall take the same fee of such lien or claim for unpaid assessments or charges, but only to the extent of assessments or charges, which accrue prior to foreclosure of the mortgage, exercise of a power of sale available thereunder, or deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure. No assessment, charge, lien, or claim which is described in the preceding sentence as being subordinate to a mortgage or as not to burden a mortgagee which comes into possession shall be collected or enforced by either the Management Committee or the Association of Unit owners from or against a mortgagee, a successor in title to a mortgagee, or the condominium unit affected or previously affected by the mortgage concerned.

XII (Missing heading on bottom page 469)

1 Each unit owner, at his own expense, shall keep the interior of his unit and its appurtenances and equipment in good order, condition and repair and in a clean and a sanitary condition, and shall do all redecoration and painting which may at any time be necessary to maintain a good appearance for his unit. Except to the extent that the Management Committee is protected by insurance against such injury, the unit owner shall repair all injury or damages to the unit, or condominium project caused by the act, negligence or omission of any unit owner or lessee or any member of the unit owners' family or the family of any lessee or sublessee or any agent, employee or guest of the owner of his lessee or sublessee and all such repairs, decorating and painting shall be of a quality and kind equal to the original work. In addition to decorating and keeping the interior of the unit in good repair; the unit owner shall be responsible for the maintenance and/or replacement of any plumbing, fixtures that may be in or connected with the unit. With the written permission of the Management Committee, the unit owner may make or permit to be made structural alterations, improvements or additions in or to the unit, which said permission shall be liberally granted. However, the unit owner shall not alter, paint, or decorate any portion of the exterior of the building where his unit is located.

XIII RIGHT OF ENTRY

1 The Management Committee and its duly authorized agents shall have the right to enter any and all of the units in case of an emergency originating in or threatening such unit or any other part of the project, whether or not the unit owner or occupant thereof is present at the time. The Committee and its duly authorized agents shall also have the rights to enter into any and all of said units at all reasonable times as required for the purpose of making necessary repairs upon the condominium common areas and facilities of the project for the purpose of performing emergency installations, alterations, or repairs to the mechanical or electrical devices or installations located thereon; provided however, such emergency installations, alterations or repairs are necessary to prevent damage or threatened damage to other units in the project; and provided further, that the unit affected by such entry shall first be notified thereof if available and if time permits.

XIV OBLIGATIONS TO COMPLY HEREWITH

1 Each unit owner, tenant, or occupant of a unit shall comply with the provisions of the Act, this Declaration and the rules and regulations all agreements and determinations lawfully made and/or entered into by the Management Committee, or the Unit Owners when acting in accordance with their authority, and any failure to comply with any of the provisions thereof, shall be grounds for an action by the Management Committee to recover any loss or damage resulting therefrom or injunctive relief.

XV INDEMNIFICATION OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1 Each member of the Management Committee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the unit owners against all cost, expenses and liabilities whatsoever, including without limitation, attorneys fees, reasonably incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which it may become involved by reason of its being or having been a member of such committee. Provided however, a member of the Management Committee shall not be liable under this paragraph for any acts which constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct.

XVI TRANSFER OR LEASE OF UNITS

1 Any unit owner, other than the Declarant, who wished to sell or lease his ownership interest wishing to give to the Management Committee, not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the proposed sale or lease, written notice of the terms of any proposed sale or lease, together with his name and address, the unit of which he is the owner and which is to be the subject matter of the proposed sale or lease, the name and address of the proposed purchaser or lessee, the amount deemed by him to constitute the fair market value of such ownership interest, and the amount of any liens and encumbrances thereon. The Management Committee shall at all times have the first right and option to purchase or lease such ownership interest or interest therein upon the same terms which option shall expire 15 days after the date of receipt by it of such notice. If said option is not exercised by the Management Committee within the aforesaid option period, the owner or lessee may, upon the expiration of said option period, the owner or lessee may, upon the expiration of said option period, contract to sell or lease (or sublease or assign) such ownership interest or such interest therein to the proposed purchaser or lessee named in such notice upon the terms specified therein. The Management Committee, upon written request of any prospective sale, buyer, lessor, tenant or mortgagee, shall furnish a duly acknowledged certificate of compliance with, or a waiver of, the provisions of this paragraph. Such a certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated herein.

2 The provisions of this Article shall not apply to any transfer, sale or assignment which occurs as a result of a mortgagee's exercise of its rights under a mortgage whether through foreclosure, deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure, or exercise of a power of sale (missing part of bottom line on page 472) a mortgagee becomes the owner of or possessor of a unit as a result of its exercise of such rights, the provisions of this Article shall not apply to any subsequent transfer, sale or assignment of the unit by such mortgage.

3 The provisions of this Article shall not apply to a transfer to a member of the immediate family of the transferor. For this purpose, immediate family shall mean some, daughter, father, mother or spouse.

4 Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, the failure to comply with the terms hereof shall in no event effect the validity of a transfer of a unit or an interest therein to a person for value, whether or not such person has actual notice of the requirements of this Article.

XVII MORTGAGEE PROTECTION PROVISIONS

1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Declaration, it is hereby declared, certified and agreed as follows:

(a) Notice of Default From and after the time a mortgagee makes written request to the Management Committee or the Association of Condominium Unit Owners therefor, the committee or said Association shall notify such mortgagee in writing in the event that the owner of the condominium unit encumbered by the mortgage held by such mortgagee neglects for a period of thirty (30) days or more to cure any failure on his part to perform any of the obligations under this Declaration.

(b) Right of First Refusal Any first mortgagee who obtains title to the condominium unit pursuant to the remedies provided in the mortgage, or foreclosure of the mortgage, or deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure, will be exempt from any "right of first refusal" contained in the condominium constituent documents.

(c) Abandonment, Termination, Material Amendment to the Declaration, Termination of Professional Management The prior written approval of each institutional holder of a first mortgage or deed of trust (hereinafter called "first mortgage") lien on units in the Project will be required for the following:

- (1) The abandonment or termination of the Project except for abandonment or termination provided by law in case of substantial destruction by first or other casualty or in the case of taking by condemnation or eminent domain.
- (2) Any material amendment to the Declaration; but not limited to any amendment which, would change the percentage interests of the unit owners in the Project;
- (3) The effectuation of any decision by the Owners Association to terminate professional management and assume self management of the Project;
- (4) To abandon, partition, subdivide, encumber, sell or transfer all or any part of the common areas (except for the granting of easements for utilities and similar purposed consistent with the intended use of the condominium common areas);
- (5) To use hazard insurance proceeds resulting, from damage to any part of the condominium project (whether to units or to the condominium common areas for purposes other than the repair, replacement, or reconstruction of such improvements, except as provided by the Utah Condominium Ownership Act in case of substantial damage to the unit and/or common areas).
- (6) To change the pro-rata interest or obligations of the condominium common areas as to any unit for the purpose of levying assessments or charges or allocating distributions of hazard insurance proceeds or condemnation awards.

(d) Examination of Records Any mortgagee shall have the right at its request and expense and upon reasonable notice, to examine the books and records of the Management Committee (missing bottom line on page 475) the association of the Unit Owners, or of the condominium project.

(e) Reserve Fund The Association shall establish an adequate reserve for maintenance, repairs and replacement of those condominium common areas that must be replaced on a periodic basis, which shall be payable in regular installments rather than by special assessment.

(f) Notice of Substantial Damage and Insurance Awards In the event of substantial damage to or destruction of any unit or any part of the common elements, the institutional holder of any first mortgage on a unit will be entitled to timely written notice of any such damage or destruction and nothing herein will entitle the owner of a unit or other party to priority over such institutional holder with respect to the distribution to such unit of any insurance proceeds.

(g) Taxes, Assessments and Charges All taxes, assessments and charges which may become liens prior to the first mortgage under local law shall relate only to the individual condominium units and not to the condominium project as a whole.

(h) No liability for Unpaid Assessments Each holder of a first mortgage lien on a unit who comes into possession of the unit by virtue of foreclosure of the mortgage, or by deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure, or any purchase at a foreclosure sale will take the unit free of any claims for unpaid assessment and charges against the unit which, accrue prior to the time such holder comes into possession of the unit, except for claims for a pro-rata share of such assessments or charges resulting from a pro-rata reallocation of such assessments or charges to all Project units including the mortgaged unit.

(i) Notice of Condemnation and Award If any unit or portion thereof or the common elements or any portion thereof is made the subject matter of any condemnation or eminent domain proceeding or is otherwise sought to be acquired by a condemning authority, then the institutional holder of any first mortgage on a Unit will be entitled to timely written notice of any such proceeding or proposed acquisition and nothing herein will entitle the owner of a unit or other part of priority over such institutional holder with respect to the distribution to such unit of the proceeds of any award or settlement.

XVII AMENDMENT (The title Article XVII was used twice)

1 Unit owners shall have the right to amend the Declaration and/or the Map upon the approval and consent of unit owners representing not less than 3/4th of the undivided interests in the condominium common areas and facilities. Any amendment shall be accomplished by the recordation of an instrument wherein the Management Committee certifies that the unit owners representing at least 3/4th of the undivided interests in the condominium common areas and facilities have approved and consented to any such amendment. Provided however, this Declarant shall not be amended to alter the mortgage protection provisions contained herein or to impair any first mortgagee's rights without the prior written consent of all first mortgagees.

XVIII SEVERABILITY

1 The invalidity of any one or more phrases, sentences, clauses, paragraphs or section hereof shall not affect the remaining portions of this instrument or any part thereof, all of which are inserted conditionally on their being held valid in law and in the event that one or more of the phrases, sentences, clauses, paragraphs or sections contained therein should be invalid, or should operate to render this agreement invalid, this instrument shall be construed as if such invalid phrase or phrases, sentence or sentences, clause or clauses, paragraph or paragraphs, section or sections had not been inserted.

XIX GENDER

1 The singular, where ever used herein shall be construed to mean the plural when applicable, and the necessary grammatical changes required to make the provisions hereof apply either to corporation or individuals, men or women, shall in all cases be assumed as though in each case fully expressed.
